

City Center

If you come from downtown Bochum turn off the Universitätsstr. at exit "Ruhr-Universität-Mitte". The exit has two lanes: Keep on the right lane that has a sign to "SASC 2007" and P9. (*) You pass by the parking garage of the Ruhr University. Keep on going straight until the end of the street. You are now below the Mensa building. In quick succession turn left twice. Directly after the second left turn, you find the P9 parking place on your left hand side. Important Note: There is an entrance barrier at P9. This barrier will be operated by SASC staff from 8:15 to 9:15 on January 31 and from 8:30 to 9:15 on February 1, 2007. To reach the Conference Hall (Veranstaltungszentrum) you can use an elevator that is located nearby P9. We will put signs to "SASC 2007" so that it should not be too hard to find.

If you come from the highway A43 turn off the Universitätsstr. at exit "Ruhr-Universität-Mitte". The exit has two lanes: Keep on the left lane that has a sign to "SASC 2007". You cross below the Universitätsstrasse. Now move to the right lane and enter the Ruhr University on the rightmost lane. You are now on the same lane just like above (for further description, see (*)).

If you arrive late please try to find a parking place on your own, e.g., at the G-Südstr. or at the N-Südstr. (Be careful, do not make the second left turn as described above, otherwise you have to exit the Ruhr University and have to try again.)
